

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 28. 1722.

THE following Address of the City of Rochester, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Jennings one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Rochester.

WE beg Leave, dread Sovereign, with all possible Humility to approach your Royal Person, and with the rest of your loyal Subjects, to express on this Occasion our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the late traitorous Conspiracy, formed and designed against your Majesty's Person and Government: And as we cannot sufficiently admire and applaud your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, in detecting these wicked and desperate Designs, so early and seasonably as to prevent (we hope) the pernicious and bloody Consequences thereof; so we cannot but think it our Duty, to renew those Assurances we have so often given your Majesty of our inviolable Zeal and Fidelity to your sacred Person and Government, and that it is our fixt and unalterable Resolution, to support and defend the same to the utmost of our Power, against all your Enemies whatsoever; and may the Almighty, by whom Kings reign, preserve your Royal Person and Family, protect your Government, bless and direct you in the Choice of such a Ministry, as may truly and indifferently administer Justice, faithfully promote your Majesty's and their Country's true Interest, use their most earnest and real Endeavours to abolish all Party Distinctions, advance our Trade, restore publick Credit, provide for the just Discharge of the National Debts, and ease your Subjects in their Taxes, and thereby procure to your Majesty and their Country the most sure and solid Guaranty of their future Security and Happiness, the united Hearts and Affections of all your People.

The following Address having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Lonsdale to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty.

To the King's Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury for the County of Westmorland, at the General Quarter Sessions held for the said County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave in most humble Manner to express to your Majesty the Assurances of that Duty and Loyalty which we at all times owe and shall ever pay to your Person and Government.

As we think ourselves most secure of the full and free Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties, while we are blessed with your Majesty to reign over us, and can never expect the Continuance of either the one or the other, but from your Majesty and your Royal Family; we cannot without the utmost Indignation reflect upon those, who for the gratifying of their private Ambition would enslave a free People, and bring Ruin and Misery upon their Native Country.

Although we have an intire Dependance upon your Majesty's Wisdom and Care for the good of your People, and are in hopes that by the timely Discovery of this wicked Conspiracy, the Designs of those who are Enemies to your Majesty's Government, and the Peace of the Nation, are totally frustrated; yet we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will each of us, in our respective Stations, at all times, as well as now, use our utmost Endeavours not only to suppress all Riots and open Rebellion, but also to punish, as far as by Law we may, such Sowers of Sedition, who endeavour to mislead your well meaning Subjects, and to seduce them insensibly and by Degrees from their Allegiance to your Majesty, to their own wicked Purposes.

Hambourg, Aug. 25. Advices from Moscow say, that the Czar has lately had several Returns of his Cholick, which nevertheless has not hindred him from prosecuting his Design against Persia; from whence some Advices intimate, that the Rebel Méri-Wey's continues his Ravages, and threatens to burn the City of Ispahan, in case he is not able to prevail against the Muscovites. This Rebel causes a Son of the Sophy of Persia to be kept strictly confin'd, and to receive the Bastinado every Day on the Soles of his Feet: He has likewise caused the Mistress of the unfortunate Sophy to be given among his Common Soldiers. At present 'tis said, that only five Russian Men of War have appeared at Sea in the Baltick, and were steering towards Dantzick. It is reported, that the Duke of Mecklenbourg has entirely disclaimed all the Steps taken by M. Lanzinski, the Czar's Minister at the Imperial Court, in order to procure an Accommodation between the Duke and his Nobility; and that he has caused that Minister to be acquainted, that he pretends not to any Agreement with his Nobility that is not suitable to his Dignity and Prerogative of a Sovereign Prince of the Empire.

Copenhagen, Aug. 25. Yesterday Count Freytag, the Imperial Minister, had his first Audience of the King of Denmark at Jagersbourg. Letters from Moscow say, that the Czar's Ministers have declared to M. Westphalen the King's Envoy, that the sending out the Czar's Ships into the Baltick need not give any Alarm to the neighbouring Princes, the Purpose of sending out those Ships being only to keep the Mariners in Discipline. Nevertheless our Squadron is kept in a Readiness for sailing upon any Appearance of Necessity.

Hague, Sept. 1. The States broke up their Assembly the 29th past, and are to meet again this Day Seven-night. They likewise ordered a Continuation of the Placard against Infection, and an additional List of Goods to be imported is added to the former; which, as soon as is perfected, the Placard will be made publick. All the Admiralty Colleges are here except that of Friedland, Friesland, which however is sent for, that they may attend all together, and consult Measures for the Advancement of their Maritime Affairs. An Express is sent to Callis, with Orders for the Commander of the Dutch Squadron in the Mediterranean, who was required to return home by the 20th Instant, to continue cruising a Month longer against the Algerines, and then to come back with his Ships unless he receives contrary Orders. The Complaints made by the Czar's Minister Prince Kurakin being taken into Consideration, relating to an Author in Amsterdam who had inserted in his Journal some Reflections against the Czar, the Author is suspended from further Writing. A Ship bound for Bilbao was stopt some Days ago in the Meuse, having Recruits on board for the Service of Spain; but at the Marques de Monteleone's Solicitations and letting go such of the Recruits as were Dutchmen, the Ship was set at Liberty.
